Temple Station advises of an assault call that occurred at Temple City High School at approximately 3:22 PM. Two female students had an argument during school. One of the female students said she was going to call some friends to come attack the other female student after school. When school let out, 2 male Asians (Suspects) arrived at the location and confronted 2 male friends (Victims) of the female who was threatened. Suspect 1 (MA/20) threatened Victim 1 with a small knife while Suspect 2 (MA/17) threatened Victim 2 with another small knife. A crowd gathered and the Suspects drove away in a white Honda Accord. Suspect 1 was positively identified and was arrested without incident. The handling unit is currently working on identifying the second Suspect. There were no injuries to either Victim.
